East Side Health District Commissary Agreement Rules

A commissary is kitchen that acts as a basis of operations for food trucks/mobile units, pushcarts, temporary event, or outside catering business.

All commissaries are required to have a current food establishment permit and being in good standing. This commissary agreement must be updated yearly.

A commissary is only allowed to be used for one individual food vendor for food preparation, supplies, cleaning and serving operations unless you use a shared kitchen where space can be rented by the hour, or on a more permanent basis, for food storage, preparation, and cooking. Commissary kitchens are fully licensed commercial kitchens that comply with all relevant food safety standards and are regulated and inspected by the local health department.

All commissary agreements will be verified with each permitted food establishment offering their services upon submission of East Side Health District's Commissary Agreement Form to the Environmental Health Department.
